Gypa news on Écrins Website

The collage consists of six screenshots from the official website of the Parc National des Écrins, illustrating various news items related to the Gypaète (Golden Eagle) population.

- Screenshot 1: A banner at the top of the homepage features a large eagle image. Below it, a news article titled "Gypaëtes : des observations régulières" discusses regular sightings of the species. It includes a sidebar for "Abonnez-vous gratuitement à la lettre des Ecrins".
- Screenshot 2: A news article titled "Gypaète : une trentaine d'observations en trois mois" (Golden Eagle: over thirty observations in three months) dated March 31, 2009. It highlights a significant increase in sightings in early 2009.
- Screenshot 3: A news article titled "Participez à la prospection des gypaëtes" (Participate in the Golden Eagle survey) dated September 27, 2010. It encourages participation in a international survey organized by the Mercantour.
- Screenshot 4: A news article titled "Huit gypaètes barbus observés" (Eight bearded golden eagles observed) dated October 16, 2010. It details the results of a survey in the Briançonnais area.
- Screenshot 5: A banner at the top of the homepage featuring a large eagle image. Below it, a news article titled "Sud Isère : 1ère rencontre culturelle" discusses a cultural meeting.
- Screenshot 6: A news article titled "Participez à la prospection des gypaëtes" (Participate in the Golden Eagle survey) dated September 27, 2010. It provides more details about the international survey.

Observer's network

1988 to 2010

Contribution of a lot of observers from different origine is very important in Écrins network.
Volunteers datas are increasing 42% to 58%
Almost 500 people from 1988.
